

Eduardo Niebla

Guitar Masterclass

Monday 8 February 2010, 6-8pm

The National Concert Hall's Learn & Explore programme and Waltons New School of Music are delighted to announce a two-hour Guitar Workshop-Masterclass with maestro flamenco-jazz guitarist and composer Eduardo Niebla.

Eduardo Niebla is one of the most brilliant and emotive performers on the world circuit today, fusing flamenco and gypsy jazz with Arabic, Indian, Latin and classical influences, to create a truly exhilarating musical experience.

Guitarists of any level are welcome to bring their instruments, and to participate in the workshop. Eduardo will start the session with a short performance, including pieces from his new album, accompanied by guitarist Ricardo Garcia. He will then work with participants on guitar techniques, harmony, improvisation and composition.

Take advantage of this rare opportunity to learn from a master, who will share his unique insights and incomparable experience. You are welcome to participate, or simply to observe.

Find further details on www.newschool.ie and www.nch.ie

Tickets €5

'The undisputed highlight of this year's Glastonbury Festival. Quite simply brilliant.'

The Sound

